Case No. 05 CV 8136 (DC)

JAPAN P.E.N. CLUB'S MOTION
FOR LEAVE TO FILE BRIEF AMICUS CURIAE
IN OPPOSITION TO AMENDED PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

The Japan P.E.N. Club respectfully moves this Court for leave to file the attached brief amicus curiae in opposition to the amended proposed settlement agreement.

Founded in 1935, the Japan P.E.N. Club is a gathering of poets, playwrights, essayists, editors and novelists, who subscribe to the philosophy of seeking peace and opposing all forms of suppression of freedom of expression. The Japan P.E.N. Club has been a leader in Japanese literature and press throughout its history, carrying out all its activities based on the principles of independence and self-reliance¹. The leadership roles of the Japan P.E.N. Club have been filled by some of the most influential and well-known novelists and writers of the era.

The attached amicus curiae brief is short; it is less than 10 pages. It addresses and calls the Court's attention to the key concerns of the writers, publishers and other rightsholders in Japan who will be directly and indirectly affected by the proposed settlement--including those rightsholders who have been recently removed from the settlement class--as well as the policy concerns raised by the proposed settlement as viewed from the perspective of these Japanese writers and rightsholders.

For these reasons, the Japan P.E.N. Club respectfully requests this Court's leave to submit the attached amicus curiae brief.
